

K-love radio is all I listen to. They are the best radio station in the world, as far as I am concerned. I would be very unhappy without being able to listen to them all the time. Please don't take my k-love away. Thank you. God help us all if you take away a station that is so positive and helps us think about good things all the time.